Store Must Stay Open in the Evening IT WILL, TO-MORROW

A ND every week-day evening, including December 22d, until 10 o'clock. On the 23d, which is the work-a-day Christmas Eve, we shall close the doors at 7 p. m.—that the thousands of us who will have helped toward your good Christmas can get ready for our own.

But the evening service is demanded. Just think of it, when New York gets a great play it must needs run for months that all who care may have a chance to see it. Think of New York and a hundred miles around wanting to see the Wanamaker Christmas Store. To be sure, in daytime alone quite sixty thousand people can comfortably come to Wanamaker's, while a big auditorium accommodates one-twentieth of that number. But where so much to see and enjoy as here?

The Holiday Tableaux; the Halsey-Stirling Paintings, the matchless picture of the Madonna, the big The silky Astrachan, that Art Gallery-features of this brightest Holiday Store. Welcome!

Silk Show Continues
